

5 IDENTIFICATION MEASURES: RELIANCE ON OBLIGED PERSONS

Please Note:

- › Regulatory requirements are set within this section as AML/CFT Codes of Practice.
- › This section contains references to Jersey legislation which may be accessed through the JFSC website.
- › Where terms appear in the Glossary this is highlighted through the use of italic text. The Glossary is available from the JFSC website.

5.1 Overview of Section

1. In some strictly limited cases, a relevant person may meet its obligation to comply with Article 13(1)(a) or (c)(ii), Article 15(1)(a), (b), (d), (e) or (g) or Article 15A of the Money Laundering Order and AML/CFT Codes of Practice by placing reliance on measures that have already been applied by an “obliged person” to find out the identity of a mutual customer and to obtain evidence of identity.
2. In order to consider what reliance might be placed on an obliged person, a relevant person will first need to determine what elements of identity must be found out and what evidence of identity is to be obtained for its customer. It will do so in accordance with Article 3 of the Money Laundering Order and AML/CFT Codes of Practice set in Sections 3, 4 and 7, and will take into account the relevant person's risk assessment for the customer. Once it has determined what identification measures it is to apply, a relevant person can then consider whether those measures have already been applied by an obliged person.
3. Where an obliged person has met its customer, who is resident in the same country as the obliged person, the measures that it has taken to find out identity and to obtain evidence of identity will be different to the identification measures that must be applied by the relevant person in a case where the relevant person is resident in a different country to the obliged person and customer, and where it has not met its customer. Even in a case where the relevant person and obliged person have met a customer and are resident in the same country, the measures taken by the obliged person may still differ to those to be applied by the relevant person to the extent that other factors are different, for example the nature of the product or service to be provided.
4. The effect of this is that the obliged person may not have found out all of the same information on identity as the relevant person needs, and may have obtained evidence of identity using different documents, data or information. This means that, in practice, the scope to place reliance may sometimes be quite limited, and that it may be necessary for a relevant person to find out more information on identity and obtain evidence for that aspect of identity itself.
5. However, it is not necessary that the obliged person will have found out identity or obtained evidence of identity exactly in line with policies and procedures applied by the relevant person, since guidance in Section 4 provides that there are different ways in which to apply identification measures. Also, where the obliged person is outside Jersey, different requirements and guidance will be applicable.
6. Where an obliged person meets the requirements outlined in Article 16 of the Money Laundering Order, a relevant person is permitted to place reliance on the obliged person to have found out the identity and to have obtained evidence of the identity of: (i) the relevant person's customer; (ii) any beneficial owner or controller of that customer; (iii) any third party for which that customer is acting; (iv) any beneficial owner or controller of a third party for - whom that customer is acting; and/or (v) any person purporting to act on behalf of that customer.

7. It is not possible to place reliance on an obliged person to obtain information on the purpose and intended nature of a business relationship or one-off transaction, nor to apply on-going monitoring during a business relationship.
 8. Further, Article 16 of the Money Laundering Order cannot be applied in any case where a relevant person suspects money laundering or the financing of terrorism, in any case where a relevant person considers that there is a higher risk of money laundering or the financing of terrorism on the basis of a risk assessment carried out under Article 16(4) of the Money Laundering Order (see Section 5.1.1), or where the obliged person has a relevant connection to a country or territory that is subject to a FATF call to apply enhanced CDD measures (see Section 7.5).
 9. Whilst the information on identity found out by the obliged person must be provided to the relevant person immediately before establishing a relationship or carrying out a one-off transaction, a relevant person is not also required to immediately obtain evidence of identity. Evidence of identity may be held by an obliged person, so long as the relevant person is satisfied that the obliged person will provide the evidence that it holds on request and without delay. However, it is not uncommon for evidence of identity to be called for at the same time as information on identity is provided by the obliged person.
 10. Inter alia, an obliged person may be:
 - › An investment advisor who arranges for a customer to invest in a financial product provided by a relevant person, where the investment is to be held in the name of the customer and not that of the investment advisor.
 - › A trust and company services provider who establishes a bank or investment account for a client company, trust or foundation.
 11. A relevant person will remain responsible for the satisfactory performance of all elements of reliance identification measures. Under Article 16 of the Money Laundering Order, in this section “reliance identification measures” means -
 - › the identification measures specified in Article 3(2)(a), (aa), (b) or (c) of the Money Laundering Order; or
 - › if the obliged person is not in Jersey, similar identification measures that the obliged person applies that satisfy Recommendation 10 of the FATF recommendations.
 12. However, where the measures taken by a relevant person are reasonable, it will have a defence should the obliged person fail to have performed satisfactory measures.
 13. Outsourcing arrangements are not included within the scope of this section, as these are distinct from circumstances in which reliance is placed on an obliged person. In an outsourcing arrangement, the customer will have a direct relationship with a relevant person and not with the delegate carrying on the outsourced activity. Although the delegate may have substantial contact with the customer, the customer is a customer of the relevant person and not of the delegate. The delegate will be carrying on the outsourced activity for the relevant person according to the terms of a contract with the relevant person. An example of a typical outsourcing arrangement is where a trustee of a collective investment fund outsources the management of the fund to an external party.

14. Where information on identity found out or evidence of that identity is passed by an obliged person to a relevant person in order to comply with requirements to counter money laundering and the financing of terrorism, the Data Protection \(Jersey\) Law 2018 restricts the use of the information to that purpose, except where another condition for processing personal data applies.
15. A customer may be an individual (or group of individuals) or legal person. Section 4.3 deals with a customer who is an individual (or group of individuals), Section 4.4 deals with a customer (an individual or legal person) who is acting for a legal arrangement, and Section 4.5 deals with a customer who is a legal person.
16. Throughout this section, references to “customer” include, where appropriate, a prospective customer (an applicant for business). A customer is a person with whom a business relationship has been formed or one-off transaction conducted.
17. Under Article 16(1) of the Money Laundering Order, in this section “customer of the obliged person” means -
 - › a customer of the obliged person;
 - › a beneficial owner or controller of that customer;
 - › a third party for whom that customer is acting;
 - › a beneficial owner or controller of a third party for whom that customer is acting; or
 - › a person purporting to act on behalf of that customer.

Statutory Requirements

18. In some strictly limited circumstances, Article 16(2) of the Money Laundering Order provides that a relevant person may be considered to have applied the reliance identification measures where such measures have already been applied by an obliged person. Obligated person means a person who the relevant person knows or has reasonable grounds for believing is:
 - › A relevant person in respect of whom the Commission discharges supervisory functions that is overseen for AML/CFT compliance in Jersey; or
 - › A person who carries on equivalent business (refer to Section 1.7).
19. Reliance must always be subject to a number of conditions.
20. The first condition (Article 16(2)(a) of the Money Laundering Order) is that the obliged person consents to being relied upon.
21. The second condition (Article 16(4) of the Money Laundering Order) is that identification measures have been applied by the obliged person in the course of an established business relationship or one-off transaction.
22. The third condition (Article 16(4)(a), (b), (c) and (d) of the Money Laundering Order) is that the relevant person obtains adequate assurance in writing that the obliged person:
 - › has applied reliance identification measures in relation to the customer;
 - › has not itself relied upon another party to have applied any reliance identification measures;
 - › has not, in reliance on any provision in Part 3A (or if the obliged person is not in Jersey, a provision of similar effect), applied measures that are less than equivalent to the reliance identification measures; and

- › is required to keep, and does keep, evidence of the identification as described in Article 3(4)(b) of the Money Laundering Order relating to each of the obliged person's customers, including a record of such evidence.
- 23. The fourth condition (Article 16(2)(b) of the Money Laundering Order) is that the obliged person immediately provides the relevant person with the information obtained from applying the reliance identification measures.
- 24. To the extent that reliance is placed on an obliged person to keep hold of the evidence obtained under reliance identification measures, the fifth condition (Article 16(5) of the Money Laundering Order) is that the relevant person obtains adequate assurance in writing that the obliged person will:
 - › keep that evidence until the evidence has been provided to the relevant person, or until notification is received from the relevant person that the evidence is no longer required to be kept; and
 - › provide that evidence to the relevant person at its request, and without delay.
- 25. The sixth condition (Article 16(43) of the Money Laundering Order) is that, immediately before placing reliance, the relevant person assesses the risk of placing reliance and makes a written record as to the reason why it is appropriate for it to place reliance on the obliged person, having regard to: (i) the higher risk of money laundering or the financing of terrorism should the obliged person fail to carry out any action specified in the assurances obtained under paragraphs 22 and 24 above; and (ii) the risk that an obliged person will fail to provide the relevant person with evidence without delay if requested to do so by the relevant person. See Section 5.1.1 below.
- 26. Under Article 16(8) of the Money Laundering Order a relevant person who relies on an obliged person under this Article must conduct tests in such manner and at such intervals as the relevant person considers appropriate in all the circumstances in order to establish whether:
 - › the obliged person has appropriate and consistent policies and procedures in place to apply reliance identification measures;
 - › if the obliged person has not already provided the evidence to the relevant person, the obliged person does keep the evidence he has obtained during the course of applying reliance identification measures in respect of a person ; and
 - › will provide that evidence without delay if requested to do so.
- 27. Under Article 16(8)(c) of the Money Laundering Order, testing should take into consideration whether a customer may be prevented, by application of law, from providing information or evidence, e.g. secrecy legislation.
- 28. If, as a result of carrying out any such test, a relevant person is not satisfied that the obliged person has appropriate and consistent policies and procedures in place, keeps evidence, or will provide it without delay if requested to do so, in that particular case, Article 16(9) of the Money Laundering Order requires the relevant person to apply reliance identification measures immediately.
- 29. Article 16(6)(a) of the Money Laundering Order provides that a written assurance will be adequate if it is reasonably capable of being regarded as reliable and a relevant person is satisfied that it is reliable.
- 30. Article 16(6)(b) of the Money Laundering Order provides that written assurances may be provided each time that reliance is placed or through a more general arrangement with an obliged person that has an element of duration, e.g. terms of business.

31. Article 16(7) states that a relevant person (including a person who was formerly a relevant person) who has given an assurance to another person under Article 16 (5) (or under an equivalent provision that applies outside Jersey) must, if requested by the other person, provide the person with the evidence obtained from applying the reliance identification measures.
32. Article 16(11) of the Money Laundering Order states that nothing in this Article permits a relevant person to rely on the reliance identification measures of an obliged person if:
 - › the relevant person suspects money laundering or the financing of terrorism;
 - › the relevant person considers that there is a higher risk of money laundering on the basis of the assessment made under Article 16(3) of the Money Laundering Order; or
 - › the obliged person is a person having a relevant connection with an enhanced risk state (within the meaning of Article 15 of the Money Laundering Order).
33. Notwithstanding that reliance may be placed on an obliged person, Article 16(10) of the Money Laundering Order states that a relevant person is liable for any failure to apply reliance identification measures.

AML/CFT Codes of Practice

34. To the extent that reliance is placed on an obliged person, a relevant person must be able to demonstrate that the conditions required by the Money Laundering Order are met.
35. All evidence of identity passed by the obliged person to a relevant person (on request) must be confirmed by the obliged person as being a true copy of either an original or copy document held on its file.

Guidance Notes

Assurance in writing about reliance identification measures

36. A relevant person may demonstrate that it has obtained adequate assurance in writing from an obliged person under Article 16(4)(a) of the Money Laundering Order that it has applied reliance identification measures to the customer, where the obliged person:
 - › provides information on identity that it has found out using an information template, such as that published in Appendix C; and
 - › explains what evidence of identity it has obtained.
37. An assurance that addresses the matters listed in paragraph 36 above will be considered to be reasonably capable of being regarded as reliable under Article 16(6)(a) of the Money Laundering Order.
38. Where, as a result of Article 16(6)(b) of the Money Laundering Order, a relevant person has a more general arrangement with an obliged person, such as terms of business, that more general arrangement may be used to explain what evidence of identity will routinely be obtained by the obliged person.

Access to evidence of identity

39. A relevant person ~~will have may~~ demonstrated that an obliged person ~~is will~~ provide evidence of identity without delay ~~where if~~ it is ~~provided made available~~ within ~~5 two working days~~. If it is provided later than five working days, it is not provided without delay. If it is ~~provided between two and 2 working where reasonably practicable, and in any case no later than 5 days days of a request~~ five working days, the entity must be able to show why this constitutes provision without delay based on the nature of its client base. In order to demonstrate the reasons for the delay the relevant person is expected to provide detail of the reasons as to what led to the delay, how many days evidence remained outstanding, how many times a delay has occurred previously across the relevant person's practice, as well as the decision-makers' considerations.

5.1.1 Assessment of Risk

Overview

40. The risk factors that are set out in this section will also be relevant to a customer risk assessment that is conducted under Section 3.3.4.1 in the cases highlighted at Section 4.4 (paragraph 67) and Section 4.5 (paragraph 118).

Statutory Requirements

41. Before relying upon the obliged person, the relevant person must assess the risk of doing so and make a written record of the reasons the relevant person considers that it is appropriate to do so, having regard to two risks.
42. The first is the higher risk of money laundering or the financing of terrorism should an obliged person fail to carry out any actions specified in the assurances obtained under Articles 16(4) and (5) of the Money Laundering Order.
43. The second is the risk that an obliged person will fail to provide the relevant person with evidence without delay if requested to do so by the relevant person.
44. Article 16(34) of the Money Laundering Order requires a relevant person to prepare a written record of the reason why it is appropriate to place reliance on an obliged person.

AML/CFT Code of Practice

45. In a case where, for a particular business relationship, testing under Articles 16(8) and (9) of the Money Laundering Order highlights that an obliged person: (i) has not applied the necessary reliance identification measures; (ii) does not provide adequate, accurate and current information; (iii) does not keep evidence of identity for as long as is necessary; or (iv) will not provide that evidence without delay when requested to do so, a relevant person must review the basis upon which it has placed reliance on that obliged person for other relationships (if any) in order to determine whether it is still appropriate to do so.

Guidance Notes

46. Immediately before relying upon an obliged person, a relevant person may demonstrate that it has had regard for the higher risk of money laundering and the financing of terrorism, and risk that an obliged person will fail to provide the relevant person with evidence of identity without delay if requested to do so where it considers the following factors:
- › The stature and regulatory track record of the obliged person.
 - › The risks posed by the country or territory in which the obliged person is based. Factors to consider include those found at Section 3.3.4.1.

- › The adequacy of the framework to combat money laundering and the financing of terrorism in place in the country or territory in which the obliged person is based and the period of time that the framework has been in place.
 - › The adequacy of the supervisory regime to combat money laundering and the financing of terrorism to which the obliged person is subject.
 - › The adequacy of identification measures applied by the obliged person to combat money laundering and the financing of terrorism.
47. A relevant person may demonstrate that it has considered the adequacy of identification measures applied by an obliged person where it takes one or more of the following steps:
- › Reviews previous experience (if any) with the obliged person, in particular the adequacy and accuracy of information on identity found out by the obliged person and whether that information is current.
 - › Makes specific enquiries, e.g. through use of a questionnaire or series of questions.
 - › Reviews relevant policies and procedures.
 - › Where the obliged person is a member of a financial group, makes enquiries concerning the extent to which group standards are applied to and assessed by the group's internal audit function.

5.2 Group Reliance

Overview

48. In some strictly limited cases, a relevant person may meet its obligation to comply with Article 13(1)(a) or (c)(ii), Article 15(1)(a), (b), (d), (e) or (g) or Article 15A of the Money Laundering Order and AML/CFT Codes of Practice by placing reliance on similar identification measures that have already been applied by a party outside Jersey who is a member of the same financial group as the relevant person but not also an obliged person.
49. The effect of Article 16A of the Money Laundering Order is therefore to extend the application of Article 16 to an external person who could not otherwise be relied on, and the six conditions and provisions for testing outlined in Section 5.1 apply to an external person in the same way as an obliged person.
50. Under the definitions provided in Article 16A(1), in this section:
- “External person” means a person outside Jersey, who -
- › is not an obliged person;
 - › is a member of the same financial group as the relevant person; and
 - › carries on a business which, if that business were carried on in Jersey, would be a financial services business.
51. “Similar identification measures” means similar measures to those specified in Article 3(2)(a), (aa), (b) and (c) that satisfy Recommendation 10 of the FATF recommendations.

Statutory Requirements

52. In some strictly limited circumstances, Article 16A of the Money Laundering Order provides that a relevant person may be considered to have applied similar identification measures specified in Article 3(2)(a), (aa), (b) and (c) of the Money Laundering Order where such measures have already been applied by an external person.

53. Under Article 16A of the Money Laundering Order, in order to place reliance on an external person, the financial group must:
- › Apply CDD measures and record-keeping requirements in line with the Money Laundering Order or in line with FATF Recommendations 10, 11 and 12;
 - › Maintain a programme against money laundering and the financing of terrorism which includes policies and procedures by which every member of the group who carries on a financial services business (or equivalent) shares information that is appropriate for the purpose of preventing and detecting money laundering and the financing of terrorism (AML/CFT programme); and
 - › Be supervised by an overseas regulatory authority in its implementation of CDD measures and record-keeping requirements and its AML/CFT programme.
- In addition, any higher risk of money laundering must be adequately mitigated by the policies and procedures of the group.*
54. Article 16(A)(2), (3), (4), (5) and (6) of the Money Laundering Order states that reliance is always subject to a number of conditions. These are outlined at paragraphs 20 to 25 above, where references to obliged person should be read as referring to external person.
55. Articles 16(A)(7) and (8) of the Money Laundering Order state that reliance must always be subject to testing. Provisions in this respect are outlined at paragraphs 26 to 30 above, where references to obliged person should be read as referring to external person.
56. Article 1(5) of the Money Laundering Order explains that a person is a member of the same financial group as another person if there is, in relation to the group, a parent company or other legal person that exercises control over every member of that group for the purposes of applying group supervision under:
- › The Core Principles for Effective Banking Supervision published by the Basel Committee;
 - › The Objectives and Principles for Securities Regulation issued by IOSCO; or
 - › The Insurance Supervisory Principles issued by the IAIS.

AML/CFT Codes of Practice

57. A relevant person may not rely on an external person where it suspects money laundering or the financing of terrorism, considers that there is a higher risk of money laundering or the financing of terrorism on the basis of a risk assessment carried out under Article 16(34) of the Money Laundering Order, or where the external person has a relevant connection to a country or territory that is subject to a FATF call to apply enhanced CDD measures.
58. Despite a relevant person's reliance on an external person under Article 16A(9) of the Money Laundering Order, a relevant person is liable for any failure to apply similar identification measures.
