1 Interpretation

1.1 In this notice, unless the context otherwise requires –

Brokerage income	Means: (a) In relation to a registered person who carries on general insurance mediation business activities from within Jersey, the net retained brokerage or income arising within or outside of Jersey; and (b) In relation to a registered person who carries on general insurance mediation business activities in Jersey from outside Jersey, the net retained brokerage and other income arising from such activities in Jersey by the registered person
JFSC	Means the Jersey Financial Services Commission
Law	Means the Financial Services (Jersey) Law 1998, as amended

2 Application fee

2.1 For the purposes of Article 8(3)(c) of the Law (which Article allows fees that are to accompany applications for registration to be published), the fee specified in an entry in column 3 of Schedule 1 is prescribed in respect of applications for registration in relation to the class of general insurance mediation business specified in the entry opposite in column 2 of the Schedule.

3 Annual fee

3.1 For the purposes of Article 9(6) of the Law (which Article allows fees payable by registered persons to be published) a person:

(a) within class S of Table 1, Schedule 3, shall pay for each year of registration (other than the year in which the person is first so registered) the annual fee set out opposite that class in column 4 of Table 1, Schedule 2

(b) who is:

- (i) within class P, Q or R of Table 1, Schedule 2 and
- (ii) whose brokerage income for the accounting year that ended in the year before the registration year for which the fee is payable is within a range specified opposite that class in column 2 of Table 1, Schedule 2

shall pay, for each year of registration, (other than the year in which the person is first so registered) the annual fee set out in column 4 of Table 1, Schedule 2.

(c) who is:

- (i) within class P, Q, R or S specified in Schedule 1, as determined in accordance with column 2 of that Schedule and
- (ii) within the description of general insurance mediation business in column 1 of Table 2, Schedule 2

shall pay for each year of registration (other than the year in which the person is first so registered) the annual fee set out in column 2 of Table 2, Schedule 2.

4 Late payment of fees and/or late submission of fees information

- 4.1 The due date for the JFSC to receive the annual fee is four weeks from receipt of your invoice.
- 4.2 If the annual fee is not received by the JFSC by the due date, an additional late payment fee of 5% of the unpaid principal amount will be applied on the day after the due date and on the 1st day of each calendar month after that.
- 4.3 If the firm does not supply the required information to calculate its annual fee by 24 May 2024, an administration fee of £200 will be charged the day after the due date and on the 1st day of each calendar month after that while the information is still outstanding. This is in addition to the late payment fee set out in paragraph 4.2 which will be calculated once the information has been submitted.

5 Late filing fees

- 5.1 If a registered person fails to file or deliver any document, including in respect of supervisory risk data, to the JFSC under the provisions of the Law or under any provisions of any Order issued in accordance with the Law on or before the date that the document becomes due, the registered person shall be liable to pay a fee of £100 for each complete month or part thereof that the document remains un-filed or undelivered unless the registered person has given the JFSC prior written notice of the reasons for the late filing or delivery of a document and the JFSC has agreed in writing that the filing may be late. Any such later agreed date shall become the due date for the purpose of the calculation and the payment of late filing fees.
